

Nemeth Code Update to Rule XXII

Miscellaneous Signs and Symbols

Approved August 2014

The BANA Mathematics Braille Technical Committee recommended and the BANA Board approved the following addition to Rule XXII in August 2014. This update adds the Per Mille Symbol, ‰, meaning "per thousand" to the Nemeth Code. This symbol is based on the percent sign (per hundred). The change is effective immediately.

Add this symbol to the list of Miscellaneous Signs and Symbols (Rule XXII). The symbol will need to be added to the alphabetic list under the symbol for percent (on print page 153)

Per mille % :: :: ::

Add this symbol to Rule XXII, §162. Cent, Dollar, Percent, Per Mille, Pound (Sterling). Create a new example (7) for per mille under the existing examples for percent; renumber the existing examples for the pound symbol as (8) and (9).